Question D (I) Prohibition and Bootlegging

Study Sources A and B, then answer ALL the questions

Source A: An excerpt from book The Making of Bahamas by Don Maples

The attempt to make America 'dry' was a result of campaigns by anti-alcohol groups such as the Women's Temperance Union and the Anti-Saloon League, who blamed crime and poverty on a drink. The laws went into effect as of January 1920 and Prohibition lasted until December 1933.

SOURCE B: Bootlegging Era in The Bahamas – Courtesy of Everything Bahamian

- (a) What is the meaning of the term Prohibition?

[1]

- (b) State TWO practices the Volstead Act prohibited in the United States of America?

[2]

- (c) Explain THREE ways in which The Bahamas benefited from Prohibition and Bootlegging.

[3]

- (d) "Most of society's problems can be blamed on alcohol abuse as seen during the prohibition era." Do you agree or disagree? Give THREE reasons for your answer.

Question D (II) Tourism

Study sources C and D, and then answer ALL questions.

Source C: An Excerpt from the book Social Studies for Secondary Schools Book 1 by Neil Sealey

Visitor arrival to The Bahamas has been on a steady increase for many decades. Note that despite declines in some years, the overall trend is upwards. However, this has mainly come from the increases in cruise ship visitors. Stopover visitors have not greatly increased since the 1980's.

Source D: A Chart from the book Social Studies for Secondary Schools Book 1 by Neil Sealey

Origin of stopover visitors in 2004. It is clear that despite the importance of other visitors, Americans totally dominate the market.

- (a) Where do most visitors to The Bahamas come from?

_____ [1]

- (b) State TWO reasons why The Bahamas is seen as an attractive destination for tourists.

_____ [2]

- (c) Explain THREE reasons why cruise tourism is on the increase in The Bahamas.

[3]

- (d) "Enhancing the tourism industry is the responsibility of the Bahamian government." Do you agree or disagree? Give THREE reasons for your answer.

QUESTION D (III) The Royal Bahamas Police Force

Study sources E and F and then answer ALL questions.

SOURCE E: An excerpt from the book The Bahamas by John Berryman

The task of enforcing the law is the responsibility of the police known here as the Royal Bahamas Police Force. To enforce the law means to make sure that the laws are obeyed and to try to prevent crime. If a crime is committed, it is the job of the police to attempt to track down and bring the offender to justice. Police officers are seen as guardians of society and they have a duty to help us live in happiness and security; free from fear and anxiety.

SOURCE F: Courtesy of the Tribune Newspaper

- (a) What is the position of the highest-ranking officer on the Royal Bahamas Force?

_____ [1]

- (b) List TWO major roles of police officers on the Royal Bahamas Police Force.

Question D (IV) Teenage Pregnancy

Study sources G and H and then answer ALL questions.

Source G: An Excerpt from an Article written by Rebecca Buffum Taylor

Especially for teens who think they can't tell their parents they're pregnant, feeling scared, isolated, and alone can be a real problem. Without the support of family or other adults, pregnant teens are less likely to eat well, exercise, or get plenty of rest. And they are less likely to get to their regular prenatal visits. Having at least one trusted, supportive adult; someone nearby in the community, if not a family member, is invaluable in helping them get the prenatal care and emotional support they need to stay healthy during this time.

Source H: Teenage Pregnancy Awareness – Courtesy of Teenage Pregnancy Prevention Website

- (a) Give the name of an organisation that assists teen mothers in The Bahamas.

_____ [1]

- (b) List TWO leading causes of teenage pregnancy.

Question D (V) Pirates and Buccaneers

Study sources I and J and then answer ALL questions.

Source I: An excerpt from the book The Making of Bahamas by Don Maples

For pirates, Nassau became their main port in The Bahamas. It had good harbours with two exits. It was a place where they could sell their goods and party. After selling their booty and buying supplies, they had a good time. The harbour and waterfront were a hive of noisy activity. At night they spent their profits on drinking and womanising. Nassau's public houses did a roaring trade as the pirates sought release from their dangerous, lawless lifestyles.

Source J: A famous English Buccaneer known as Sir Henry Morgan – Courtesy of World History Encyclopedia

- (a) What is the name of the most famous buccaneer?

_____ [1]

- (b) Describe TWO main differences between the lifestyles of pirates and buccaneers.
